

Helen Lessick

Artist: Helen Lessick
Title: Metro Hair Survey (200,731 Rider Hairstyles on the Bus Today)
Date(s): Spring 1993
Physical Description: Pamphlet, 15" x 18" open, folding to 7 1/2" x 3"; 2-color, offset print in an edition of 40,000.

Distribution: In transit information centers and schedule racks on buses throughout the Metropolitan Seattle Transit district, approximately 200 square miles.

Project Description: A public art project, designed to mimic bus schedules, looking at hairstyles of riders, as well as questions about why patrons ride the bus and conversation starters. The piece was designed to be read in 18-20 minutes, the length of the average commuter trip in Seattle.

Artist: Helen Lessick
Title: Multiple projects distributed to the public
Date(s): 1993 - 2016
Physical Description: Pamphlets and booklets

Distribution: In transit information centers and schedule racks on buses, and public distribution sites in Washington and California

Project description: Participatory projects related to mass transit or the ecology of soil

